

TUFSO National Game Network Meeting Action Points

Structured Dialogue National League

Members were given an update on current casework and the 'Structured Dialogue' with officials from the National League. A report of the last meeting can be found HERE. The date of the next meeting will be announced once it is known.

FA Regulatory Reform

The meeting heard from TUFSO Chair Malcolm Clarke. Malcolm and TUFSO vice-chair Tom Greatrex sit on the FA Council as supporter representatives. Malcolm explained his role on the FA Council and how he welcomed the opportunity to hear from members on issues that he could try to address on their behalf. During discussions about financial fair play, Malcolm agreed to circulate the latest version of our submission to the FA on regulatory reform. The paper can be downloaded from the resource documents attached to the main article.

iFollow

Members expressed alarm at the EFL's intended use of iFollow and the impact on games kicking off at the traditional time of 3 pm on a Saturday. Members saw this as a threat to the clubs outside the Premier League and EFL structures and deliberate pressure on the rules governing the broadcasting of matches. An article on iFollow and its potential impact on the National Game can be found HERE.

Watching Football is Not a Crime

Our campaigning against the poor treatment of football supporters traveling to watch their team has had a number of successes, those wishing to find out more can do so HERE.

To improve communication with local police and encourage better treatment of supporters we are encouraging members to get involved in the recently launched local Independent Police Advisory Groups. Members interested in finding out if there is a group in their area should email our campaigns officer Amanda Jacks [amanda.jacks@fsf.org.uk]

Women at the Game

The work of the Women at the Game group was discussed and members can find out more details HERE.

CONIFA

Members were given some background on CONIFA, The Confederation of Independent FAs. The group is a global umbrella organisation for national teams not under the auspices of FIFA; representing nations, minorities, isolated dependencies or cultural regions. More details about the group can be found HERE. A report of last year's tournament can be found HERE.

Fans for Diversity

The meeting heard from our Fans for Diversity campaigns officer Maria Horner. Maria gave an update on the Fans for Diversity work, encouraging more diverse support at clubs and how members can apply for funding for campaigns at their club can be found HERE.
